COMMUNITY WARNED ABOUT CHANCES OF SEVERE THUNDERSTORMS

The Department of Co-operative Governance and Traditional Affairs warns the communities about severe chances of severe thunderstorms over the whole Province, especially in the Highveld areas, today. Road users are advised to take precautions while driving. Farmers are advised secure their livestock. Parents are advised to protect their children by keeping them in well constructed structures. Be mindful of flash floods and rising streams. All resources are placed on high alert.

For any disaster emergencies you can contact The Provincial Disaster Management toll free number: 0800 202 507.
