MPUMALANGA PROVINCIAL HOUSE OF TRADITIONAL LEADERS HOSTS COMMEMORATION FUNCTION FOR FALLEN HEROES

The Mpumalanga Provincial House of Traditional Leaders (MPHTL) will host a commemoration for fallen heroes in remembrance of traditional leaders who have passed on. The commemoration will be hosted in recognition of the significant role played by the late traditional leaders in the development of their communities. MEC for Co-operative Governance and Traditional Affairs (COGTA) in Mpumalanga, Ms Refilwe Mtshweni will deliver a key note address.

Chairperson of the MPHTL, Kgoshi Lameck Mokoena says the commemoration will serve as a perfect platform to reflect on the role played by traditional leaders who in their living years, served their communities selflessly as servants. "It will be a perfect platform to highlight the role of the traditional leaders who assisted their communities to lodge land claims, establish schools, facilitated the establishment of health facilities and defended their communities against forced removal by the apartheid system," says Kgoshi Mokoena.

The function is scheduled as follows:

Date: 11 March 2016

Time: 09h00

Venue: Middleburg Banquet Hall, Steve Tshwete Local Municipality
