GOVERNMENT BRINGS SERVICES CLOSER TO THE DOORKOP AND MHLUZI COMMUNITIES

Communities in Mhluzi and Doornkop in the Steve Tshwete Local Municipality will join communities elsewhere in the country who enjoy access to government services, without travelling long distances when two Thusong Service Centres (TSCs) are opened officially tomorrow. Thusong Service Centres are a one-stop, integrated community development centres, that provide every South African citizen with access to information and services within their place of residence with the purpose of improving the quality of their lives. These centres help them not to travel long distances using the little resources that they have, to access government information and services.

MEC for Co-operative Governance and Traditional Affairs (COGTA), Ms Refilwe Mtshweni will open the two centres officially. Details of the function are as follows:

Date : 22 July 2016
Time : 09h00
Venue : Adelaide Tambo Thusong Service Centre.

The media is invited.

End.
